Bagdasarian, Gary G. (for Raymond A. Love – Trustee – Petitioner)

Petition by Trustee for Leave to Resign and For Appointment of Successor Trustee

		RAYMOND A. LOVE , Trustee of the DEUTSCH PARK AND BOTANICAL GARDENS CHARITABLE TRUST , is Petitioner.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: Note: If the petition is granted and if bond is required, the Court will set status hearing on Friday 7-27-12 for proof of bond.

		Petitioner at all times mentioned and been and is now the Court-appointed Trustee of the Deutsch Park Trust. The Fred S. Deutsch Testamentary Trusts No. 3 and 4 were terminated and distributed 95% to Deutsch Park Trust and 5% to the Fresno Metropolitan Museum of Art, History & Science Endowment Fund by Order filed 3-6-00 (attached).
		Petitioner states the Deutsch Park Trust is not subject to continuing court administration; however, pursuant to the 1995 Order: "The trustee or co-trustee shall make, or cause to be made, such annual reports, tax returns, and accounts of the administration of the charitable trust, and shall make, and file such reports, returns and accounts, with applicable authorities, and comply with all applicable reporting requirements." Said provision has previously been interpreted to mean that, because there is no designated beneficiary to which the Trustee is to report, annual accountings and tax returns have been provided to the FRESNO DISCOVERY CENTER , which is charged with the duty to care, preserve, and maintain the Deutsch Cacti Collection. Furthermore, the Trustee is required to provide the CITY OF FRESNO a 15-day notice before any principal distributions are made to the Discovery Center. Pursuant to Declaration of Raymond A. Love Concerning Resignation and Recommendation of Trustee (attached), Petitioner resigns effective appoint appointment of a successor trustee and recommends appointment of GLORIA KOSBIE , a licensed Certified Public Accountant and California licensed fiduciary (resume attached).

The attached Statement of Financial Position as of 9-30-11 reflects a total value of $140,404.00. Petitioner requests that Ms. Kosbie be appointed without bond due to the relative small size of the trust, the continuing cost of furnishing bond, and the fact that Ms. Kosbie is a licensed CPA and licensed fiduciary, carrying her own professional liability insurance and business insurance. Consent to Act as Trustee signed by Ms. Kosbie was filed 4-17-12.

Petitioner requests that:

1. The Court appoint Gloria Kosbie as Successor Trustee of the Deutsch Park and Botanical Gardens Charitable Trust;
2. The Court determine that annual accountings be provided to the Fresno Discovery Center and to no other party;
3. The Court determine the amount of the bond, if any, that is required by the Successor Trustee under the circumstances; and
4. The Court make all further and proper orders that the Court may deem necessary.

Objection was filed 5-24-12 THE DISCOVERY CENTER (Gary Pigg, President) states:

The Discovery Center does not oppose the decision of Petitioner to resign as trustee, but does oppose all other requests in the Petition. The Center is disappointed that he no longer wishes to serve, but understands it is a personal decision.

Objector notes that the reference to "Fresno Discovery Center" is incorrect. The Discovery Center is a California non-profit corporation and non-profit charitable organization under IRC §501 (c) (3), and is the sole beneficiary of the Deutsch Park Trust. The Center was established in 1954 as a non-profit entity for the purpose of providing an enriching hands-on education experience for school-age children in Fresno County, and relies entirely on donations for its support and continued functioning.

Level of Funding: The Center cannot continue to maintain the Deutsch Collection without the current minimum level of funding (approx. $1,200/mo). Despite the fact that the income generated by the Trust's assets is far less than that amount, Mr. Love has been creative in his efforts to provide the necessary funding throughout his tenure as trustee.

There is nothing in the Petition that provides any assurance that the current level of funding would continue. If it does not continue, the Center does not have the resources to continue maintaining the Collection and might have no alternative but to abandon it, which would frustrate the wishes of the benefactor, Fred S. Deutsch, who established the Collection, and whose charitable gift made the display of the Collection possible.

Bond: Ever since the Court approved transfer of the Collection to the Center, there has been a court-ordered bond in place for the protection of the Center as sole beneficiary. The Center is very uncomfortable with the pending request to dispense with the requirement of a bond, which provides better protection for a beneficiary than professional liability insurance.

Distant Trustee: Mr. Love has worked well with the Center in providing support, in part because he is a local person with whom the Center can speak, in person if necessary, in discussing needs and problems in relation to the Collection. The Center has no way to know if Ms. Kosbie has the intention of providing a similar level of communication and support, and has misgivings about moving the trusteeship out of Fresno for that reason. Future communication with the trustee would necessarily become more difficult and less personal if a distant person were to succeed Mr. Love as trustee.

Examiner notes that the address provided for Ms. Kosbie is a Sausalito, CA address.

Financial Accountings: The Petition intimates, without actually stating, that the future trustee will provide financial accountings to the Center, but no details are given in the Petition or supporting declaration. Will the Center be furnished annually with a copy of Form 990 by the trustee in future years? How detailed an accounting does the trustee propose to give the Center concerning the investment of trust funds?

Carry Value of Assets: Petitioner's schedule reflects the carry value of the assets as of 9-30-11. Almost three calendar quarters have elapsed since that schedule was prepared. The Center and the Court should be provided the current carry value of the Trust's assets.

The Discover Center opposes the Petition for the reasons stated above and respectfully asks the Court to deny it.

		No other proceedings.	1. Petitioner provides two alternatives for distribution of the real property under Probate Code § 6401 (a) or (c) depending on whether the property is characterized as community or separate. Since Petitioner is alleging the property is community based upon the marriage and upon the use of community property funds for purchase, the Petitioner's alternative distribution allegations create uncertainty as to the initial title and to the circumstances under which the Interspousal Transfer Deed was signed in 2003, and as a result, create uncertainty as to the character of the real property. Need additional information regarding the reasons for said transfer of the subject real property in 2003 into Decedent's name alone in order for the Court to determine whether the real property is community or separate. 2. Petition includes statements regarding previous distribution of personal property to Decedent's two children; however, Petition does not describe any personal property in Attachment 7(a) or 7(b), and it appears inappropriate to reference such personal property, thereby bringing it into consideration subject to this Petition and affecting the real property characterization and manner of distribution.

FTB Notice		File 6 – Holder

- After the change in title, Petitioner and Decedent continued to pay the mortgage, taxes, etc., with community property [funds];
- Since community property was used to pay for the property, with the exception of the initial \$500.00 purchase, Petitioner requests the Court confirm that Petitioner owned a $\frac{1}{2}$ interest in the house at the time of Decedent's death, minus \$250.00;
- Under Probate Code § 6401 (a), 100% of Decedent's community property interest will go to Petitioner;
- Under Probate Code § 6401 (c), $\frac{1}{3}$ of Decedent's separate property belongs to his spouse (Petitioner), and $\frac{1}{3}$ goes to each of Decedent's two children, JEFFREY LEE HOLDER, JR. and MELISSA CHRISTINE PERRYMEN; thus, the three beneficiaries will split \$250.00, which represents Decedent's $\frac{1}{2}$ of the down payment on the real property;
- Since Petitioner already distributed many of Decedent's personal effects to his children, the value of which greatly exceeded \$84.00 [which approximately represents $\frac{1}{3}$ of \$250.00], Petitioner asks that the entire amount of Decedent's separate property interest be granted to Petitioner;

Petitioner requests: a determination that 100% of Decedent's interest in the real property passed to her.

Note: Proposed order submitted by Petitioner finds that:

1. Court determines that $\frac{1}{2}$ interest in real property located at 5530 Norwich Ave., Fresno, passes to Petitioner; and
2. Court confirms that $\frac{1}{2}$ interest in the real property located at 5530 Norwich Ave., Fresno, belongs to Petitioner.

PUBLIC GUARDIAN, is Petitioner and requests appointment as conservator of the person with medical consent powers and dementia powers to administer dementia medications and for placement in a secured perimeter facility; and for appointment as conservator of the estate without bond, with authority to sell the proposed conservatee's former residence, subject to court confirmation, and authority to sell the proposed conservatee's personal property no longer needed.

Estimated Value of the Estate:

Personal property - UNKNOWN
 Annual income (Pension) - $ 9,202.56
 Annual income (SSA) - $15,168.00
Total annual income - $24,370.56

Voting rights affected.

Petitioner states the proposed conservatee had been residing in her own home. She has since been moved into one of her son's home. Although this appears to be adequate at the time, she has reportedly been physically violent with a recent care provider, most likely due to her dementia. In addition, there is conflict between two of her sons and another son. Further, the proposed conservatee requires assistance with managing her finances. The police are currently investigating an $8,000.00 check that is missing and one of the sons recently recorded a quitclaim deed transferring ownership of one of the conservatee's homes to himself. The conservatee insists that she did not sign over her home to her son. If appointed as conservator, the Public Guardian would be able to marshal and protect the conservatee's assets and assist the police in the investigation of any misappropriated funds.

Court Investigator Samantha Henson filed a report on 05/30/12.
